- A Note about LinkedIn Badge Sharing

When sharing a badge on LinkedIn, you can choose to share to feed and/or to profile. Share to profile adds the badge to the Licenses & Certifications section of your profile. Please be aware that the badge image does not display in this section, but rather the issuing organization logo.

By default, the issuing organization and logo displayed will be for Badgr, but you may choose a different issuing organization. Check with your badge awarder to see if there is a recommended issuing organization to use.
